DEFINITELY WHEN IT'S HOT: Twenty-nine members of the Princeton Nursery School cool off at the wading pool at John and Clay streets last week. The energetic group of 3- to 5-year-olds are taken to the pool for an hour and a half on mornings when it is hot outside. "Definitely when it's hot," smiled one of the teachers present.

Board Recommendation Expected On Completing Griggs Farm Units

Township Committee has asked the Township Housing Board to report to it on Monday, August 16, as to whether or not to proceed with building the final units at Griggs Farm and which of the two developers interested in the project it recommends.

The Housing Board met in closed session at a special meeting late Monday afternoon to prepare its response. "I think we have a proposition that we like," Tom Poole, chairman of the Housing Board, said on Tuesday when interviewed by telephone.

Over the past several months, the board has continued to negotiate with the two developers who have submitted proposals for the development of Courtyard IV, the final phase of the 280-unit Griggs Farm. The original plans called for 68 units in a mix of townhouses and apartments, for which much of the infrastructure — storm and sanitary sewers, water mains, electricity, road base and curbing — is in place. Forty-six of the 68 units were to be market rate units and 22 for low- and moderate-income families.

One of the developers is A.P. Orleans Co., the Huntingdon, Pa., firm retained by the Township in May, 1991, to sell off 51 townhouses at Griggs Farm that had not been sold when the Township took over the project from Princeton Community Housing, the original developer. Orleans successfully marketed the 51 units within a relatively short time period and was invited to submit a proposal to build the final courtyard.

Their original proposal came in with a higher price tag than the Township felt comfortable with. The deficit incurred by Griggs Farm is about $7 million, according to Mr. Poole, and the Township does not want to make it any bigger. Therefore it is hoping at the very least to break even on Courtyard IV — something Princeton Community Housing had thought it could do on the entire project, given the

Bank Teller Is Charged In Night Deposit Thefts

A teller at the United Jersey Bank, 90 Nassau Street, has been charged by Borough police with two counts of stealing cash left by merchants in its night deposit.

Donna Krenzel, 26, of Wyndmoor Drive, East Windsor Township, was charged with theft after she was asked to come to police headquarters on Friday. Ms. Krenzel is scheduled to be arraigned in Borough Court on Monday. Her two counts of theft, both indictable, will then be referred to the Mercer County Prosecutor's Office. Until then, she has been released in her own recognizance.

"We have notified the bank of the action we have taken," said Capt. Peter Hanley this week. He declined to reveal how police were led to Ms. Krenzel, other than to say it was the result of good police work. The investigation was conducted by Detectives John Reading and David Dudeck.

Borough Council Grants Kiosk A Temporary Stay of Execution

A grass-roots movement has sprouted in Princeton, aimed at saving the kiosk at the corner of Nassau and Witherspoon streets from demolition by United Jersey Bank.

At the Borough Council meeting last Tuesday night, Nassau Street resident Arthur Saylor presented a petition signed by about 250 people asking that the Arts Council be given a three-month opportunity to care for the kiosk.

By Friday afternoon, a number of Princeton High School students were at the kiosk, sprucing it up with paint and brush. And by this Tuesday morning, the petition signatures had mounted to more than 900.

Council agreed to grant a stay of execution on the kiosk until it had a chance to discuss it again. This discussion is scheduled for the Council meeting on Tuesday night, August 3.

On July 13, Borough Council voted to accept United Jersey Bank's offer to remove the kiosk, which is located in front of its office. The bank was willing to spend up to $10,000 to do this, although the actual cost is estimated to be in the $5,000-$6,000 range.

That same night, Council also rejected Roger Martindell's motion to allow the Arts Council a three-month trial period to see if it could maintain the kiosk in better shape.

At last Tuesday night's meeting, Mr. Martindell said Council had made a decision that struck a chord in the community. He asked his colleagues to reconsider the issue, particularly in light of the fact that Councilwoman Jane Terpstra was not present for the vote.

BEAUTIFYING A BELEAGUERED KIOSK: Princeton High School juniors Hanne Winarsky, Kate Blafson and Sandra Toth, from left, formed a volunteer brigade to paint the kiosk at Nassau and Witherspoon streets. More than 900 people have signed a petition asking that it be given a three-month reprieve from destruction.

The stay of execution had its last-minute aspect. Borough Attorney Michael Herbert said he had already developed a contract setting forth the terms for removing the kiosk, and was proceeding ahead.

"Unless I have direction from Borough Council tonight, removal will take place within a week or two," he said.

Ms. Terpstra asked that the contract with United Jersey Bank not be fully executed until Council had an opportunity to discuss the issue further.

David Goldfarb countered that this was a mistake, because people who rely on votes taken by Borough Council shouldn't feel they have to wait for full Council to vote. "The real issue, I think," said Mr. Goldfarb, "is that it is not fair to the bank."

Delay in Execution

"The bank is not going to be harmed by a two-week delay in execution," replied Ms. Terpstra. "We are certainly obligated to give it a wide forum."

Mark Freda said he agreed with Mr. Goldfarb that the Arts Council and others who want the kiosk carried on should find another way to do it. Ray Wadsworth suggested that the kiosk either be moved across Nassau Street or to the corner of Witherspoon and Hulfish Streets.

The embattled kiosk was installed in 1989, when Nassau Street was reconstructed. It replaced a kiosk across Witherspoon Street, in front of Hamilton Jewelers, which was removed during reconstruction.

The late Mayor Barbara Sigmund was a strong proponent of the kiosk, and of its twin in front of the Garden Theatre. She wanted there to be places where town and gown could meet and where everyone could exchange information.

In the years since, the kiosk has assumed a raffish, messy look. It hasn't been cared for — possibly because no one on the Borough staff was ever given this responsibility and no volunteers came forward to help.

Search for New Superintendent of Schools

The community is invited to attend a meeting on Monday night, August 16, to discuss the search for a new superintendent of schools to replace Carol Choye.

The meeting will take place in the Valley Road Conference Room from 8 to 9:30 p.m.

Carole Larsen, the New Jersey School Boards Association consultant hired by the School Board, will explain the search process. She will take input from the public on three topics: the strengths of the Princeton District, the needs within the District, and the qualities the community would like to see in a new superintendent.

This is the first of three meetings planned with Ms. Larsen. The others are tentatively scheduled for September 8 and September 13.

The search process is expected to conclude in February or March, 1994.

School Board President John Clearwater said that meetings with staff and teachers will begin as soon as school starts. Meetings will also be scheduled with specific community groups. "This will be a very inclusive kind of process," said Mr. Clearwater.

A few days after the bank had processed the night deposits and sent out receipts, the restaurant and liquor store owners realized their deposits had not been recorded. They notified police.

By processing the night deposits on both dates and through a process of elimination, police detectives were able to conclude, Capt. Hanley said, that the suspect had stolen the deposits.

To date, he said, none of the money has been recovered.

Bogus Traveler's Checks

Still not solved is who is passing counterfeit $100 Atlantic Bank Visa traveler's checks in town.

Two more surfaced on July 10, bringing the total to four. One was at a clothing store, another at a food store, both on Palmer Square.

In both cases, the deception was not discovered until Visa returned the fake checks to the victims. In neither case, Capt. Hanley said, is it known how much the purchases were for because the victims cannot recall the actual transactions. The clothing store notified police of the deception on July 27; the food store three days later.

In a previous incident on July 11, a clothing store on Nassau Street was "hit" with a fake Visa traveler's check for $100 and police were notified 15 days later. At the time of that investigation, Capt. Hanley said both signatures on the counterfeit check were illegible. Police believe, he said, that someone is photocopying a $100 traveler's check.

READY FOR BICYCLISTS AND PEDESTRIANS: The long-awaited addition to the Alexander Street bridge over Stony Brook for pedestrian and bicycle safety is now in place. Merchants complained that Alexander Street was torn up three years in a row, but it was also clear that the vehicular bridge was too narrow to be safe for pedestrians and bicyclists. The bridge has been called an "accident waiting to happen."

Residents of Borough Object Strongly To Front-Yard Parking Recommendation

Strong objections from residents — combined with the lack of even one shred of public support — led Borough Council last week to table a subcommittee's recommendation for limited front-yard parking in the Borough.

A number of Madison Street residents spoke against permitting cars to park in the front-yard area. Jenny Raybould, for one, said she would like to see a more sweeping solution to parking problems, rather than having them addressed piecemeal.

A wholesale look at solving these problems is exactly the objective of the Borough's Traffic and Transportation Committee, which expects to bring its findings to Council later this summer.

Traffic and Transportation Committee Chair David Goldfarb told Ms. Raybould that the committee was hoping for a comprehensive solution along the lines she was suggesting, but that parking was a very complex problem.

Jill Lesh, 7 Madison Street, took exception to front-yard parking on aesthetic grounds. She said that the sight of cars sticking out onto the sidewalk all along Madison Street encourages a parking-lot look.

"The ordinance was not designed for one street," said Zoning Officer Frank Slimak. "Let's be realistic. Let's see what's going on. Look at Maple, at Pine. People have been parking like that for years."

No Place to Park

Wiggins Street resident Ted Cox said the suggested ordinance didn't address one of the primary problems: people who have no place to park. He also pointed out that the additional cut curbs that would result from the addition of front-yard parking would further reduce on-street spaces.

"It would make legal what is illegal now, and will solve some problems in parking," said Roger Martindell. But he added that he was reluctant to vote for front-yard parking until such an ordinance could be coordinated with other legislation having to do with on-street parking.

and are permitted front-yard parking. These are houses in which such a space existed prior to 1968, when the ordinance banning front-yard parking was passed.

There are some 80 additional residences which might be eligible for front-yard parking under a new ordinance. Not all of these, however, would be able to fit a car in their front yard.

Firehouse Auction

In other business, Borough Council decided to hold off setting a date for a third Chambers Street firehouse auction until it met with the auctioneer who planned the first.

TOPICS Of the Town

"I'd like to revisit this issue at the end of August, when something will come from the Traffic and Transportation Committee on on-street parking," Mr. Martindell said.

Mark Freda took a pragmatic approach to the suggested ordinance. "I realize this won't solve all the problems, but it will help some people. So let's go ahead with it," he said. Later in the evening, and after further public criticism, he was asked if he wanted to go ahead and introduce the ordinance. "Do you think we're crazy?" was his response.

The now-tabled ordinance would have allowed front-yard parking in one- and two-family dwellings only. One space per unit would be permitted, but it could not be in front of the dwelling unit. Also, the space would not be allowed to occupy more than 50 percent of the front-yard area.

The subcommittee charged with drafting the ordinance consisted of Councilmen Roger Martindell, David Goldfarb, and Mark Freda, plus Mr. Slimak.

About 125 Borough residences are "grandfathered."

Borough Will Seek Dismissal in Chase Suit

In the wake of a 7-0 decision last week by the State Supreme Court that ruled police officers have immunity from being sued for injury or death resulting from high-speed pursuits, attorney Gerard Hanson said this week he will file a motion "within a week from this Friday" to have a high-speed suit against the Borough dismissed.

The case against the Borough dates back to May 1, 1986 when a 24-year-old motorcyclist, Mark Kollar, was pursued down Alexander Street by two officers in a Borough patrol car. His cycle hit a bridge abutment and became airborne. Mr. Kollar was crushed to death when his heavy motorcycle landed on top of him.

The victim's parents, Elmer and Patricia Kollar of Pennsylvania, sued the two officers, Ptl. Donald Dawson and Ptl. Kenneth Lozier, and the Borough, insisting that the police had acted recklessly and had violated a department order prohibiting such pursuits.

Last week's State Supreme Court ruling involved a lawsuit against Wildwood and one of its police officers. Ptl. Robert Cramer, responding to a call about a disturbance at a tavern, saw a fleeing car with its headlights turned off. The driver, William Logan, ran three stop lights.

Ptl. Cramer pursued the car for five minutes before it crashed into a truck operated by John W. Tice Jr. Mr. Tice died in the crash.

The victim's family sued Ptl. Logan and the city of Wildwood, claiming the officer was negligent in his pursuit. In its ruling, Chief Justice Robert Wilentz said, "Our holding today immunizes police officers absolutely.... It is based on our conclusion that the immunity was intended by the Legislature to be absolute in order to encourage vigorous enforcement."

Mr. Hanson, special counsel to the Borough in the Kollar suit, attempted unsuccessfully last fall to have the Borough case consolidated with the Tice case.

He commented that he was pleased with the court's decision because it had addressed the same argument that the Borough had made: that the two officers were performing nothing more than routine police work when they attempted to stop Mr. Kollar.

His reading of the Supreme Court decision means there will be no trial, he concluded.

Brunswick Township is a full time student at Rutgers University. He has asked for and received permission to start in December in order to finish his final semester in criminal justice at Rutgers.

Upon graduation, Officer Martinez will enter the next recruit training class at the Somerset Police Academy.

Anticipated Retirements

Officer Papp is filling a vacancy in the department created when Ptl. Vincent DeMartino was dismissed this year from the force, after he was found guilty by a panel comprised of members of the Public Safety Committee of assaulting a Trenton State College student in a Nassau Street restaurant last September.

Use Variance Granted For Writers' Center

By unanimous vote last Wednesday night, the Zoning Board granted a use variance to Olivia Cox-Fill to operate up to 36 four and one-half day retreats per year for aspiring or established writers at her home on Drakes Corner Road. The approval included an exemption from further site plan review, since no changes to the exterior of the house or to the property are required in connection with the operation.

Ms. Cox-Fill was on hand to describe the program to the Zoning Board. It will be known as Twin Elms Writers' Center and is modelled after the Arvon Foundation in England which she attended and which supports the establishment of new centers in this country. In addition to the regular sessions on topics such as writing poetry, plays or fiction, open to anyone who inquires and signs up, there would be "closed" sessions for groups of high school students of senior citizens. Ms. Cox-Fill said

Novelist Carolyn Slaughter, who will be a tutor for one of the regular sessions, spoke of how Ms. Cox-Fill's home on Drakes Corner Road offers "the right kind of space and solitude" for a writers' center. She said the house is very tranquil, and the writers' center would enhance what is offered in the community already.

Professional Planner Gerald Lenaz addressed zoning issues. Mr. Lenaz quoted the Princeton Community Master Plan's highlighting of the cultural and international aspects of Princeton and the intent to enhance those aspects. He pointed out there would be no detrimental effect associated with granting the use variance, no nuisance factors, no need for additional buildings and no changes to the exterior of the property.

The questions Zoning Board members asked were largely for clarification of the numbers of people who would be involved and how the use variance would be applied. One member suggested placing a time limit so that operation of the writers' center could be evaluated, but the other members were not in favor, so the matter was dropped.

In public comment, two residents of Drakes Corner Road, Yolanda McPhee and David Baker, each said they were very much in favor of the proposed use of the property. Anne Reeves of the Arts Council also spoke in support.

New Officers Identified On Borough Police Force

Three new officers on the Borough police force, including the department's second female member and its first Hispanic, were identified this week. Police officials had been withholding their names, pending completion of a review of their medical records.

Sharon Papp, 29, a graduate of The Hun School and a Trenton resident, will start her duties immediately. For the past five years, Officer Papp has been employed by Mercer County, the last three as an investigator for the prosecutor's office and the previous two as a sheriff's officer. She has a BA degree from Rider College.

John Furryk, 25, a resident of Hamilton Township, will start his Borough police career as a member of the next training class at the Somerset County Police Academy which starts August 16 and graduates December 22. He has a degree from Western Maryland College.

While waiting for an opening in a career in law enforcement, Officer Furryk has worked part time, off and on, in Princeton in construction work. Capt. Peter Hanley reported were hired in anticipation of the retirement early next year of three 25-year members from the department. The addition of the three officers raises the total number on force to 33, one more than its authorized strength.

While Officer Papp is the second female member on the force, joining Ptl. Carol Raymond, she is the fourth to have been hired by the department. The first, Monica Sheehan was a member of the Borough force for five years before leaving in the 1970s to enter law school. Capt. Hanley reports Ms. Sheehan is now an assistant prosecutor in North Jersey.

Lori Scannella left in the early 1990s to become a member of the South Brunswick Township police department.

The three new officers were among the 450 applicants who took a written test at Princeton High School earlier this year to become a patrolman. About 180 applicants qualified to take the physical test.

Further testing in the process reduced the number to 13 who were interviewed by the Public Safety Committee. The committee eliminated two applicants as unacceptable.

The remaining 11 became 10 when one of the top candidates, who has a degree in criminal justice, accepted another position. "Apparently, he had two offers the same day," said Lt. Hanley.

With the hiring of the three new officers, the Borough department now has an active list of seven candidates.

Borrowed Car Overturns On Province Line Road

When the 1987 Olds he was driving rolled over and landed on its roof Monday morning where Province Line Road intersects Cherry Valley Road, it was the culmination of a string of bad luck for 46-year-old Trenton resident Robert Gunderman. "It's not been a good week," he admitted.

Mr. Gunderman had just dropped his daughter off at her job at The Bedens Brook Club and was returning the car to its owner. His own car had broken down Friday night — ironically, at the same location — from a broken heater hose. "Take my car," his wife's girl friend had offered.

As Mr. Gunderman reached the crest of a hill on Province Line just before it descends to a stop sign a short distance away at Cherry Valley, there were two cars ahead of him. The first had stopped for the stop sign; the driver of the second had slammed on the brakes.

Mr. Gunderman had to hit his brakes. To avoid a collision, he pulled to the right. His car traveled up the side of an embankment, to the point, he said, where there was too much weight on one side. The car rolled over and landed on its roof.

He managed to crawl out uninjured. "In that respect I was lucky," he said. "The tough part is having to tell my wife's friend what happened to her car."

If the accident were not enough, he had, he said, just been laid off from his first job. This was his last day. He had been able to obtain a second job this week at Bedens Brook as a dishwasher.

There was an up side, however. "Every single person who went by stopped to see if I was hurt or if there was anything they could do," recounted Mr. Gunderman. "Everyone ... except the person who slammed on the brakes in front of me and continued on. There was no way that driver could not have seen what happened."

As for the offers of aid, "That really surprised me," Mr. Gunderman continued. "You can't get anybody to stop today but every person stopped. I'd say there were about a dozen. The first one gave me a lift to a house, where I called police."

There was one more bit of silver lining for Mr. Gunderman. "I couldn't give him a ticket," said the Hopewell Township patrol officer investigating the accident. "He had enough troubles."

One Automobile Stolen; Second Attempt Fails

A 1988 Hyundai was stolen in the Borough last week but an attempt to steal a 1993 Acura failed, Borough police report.

The white, two-door Hyundai was stolen overnight during the weekend from an unlocked garage at the rear of a home on Western Way. The keys were not inside.

The owner, a resident of West Windsor, valued her car at $9,000.

The Acura was parked behind an eating club at 53 Prospect Avenue. Between 1 Sunday morning and 12:45 in the afternoon, someone gained entry to the locked car without force and broke out the ignition.

Apparently the intruder could not get the car started, however, as the ignition was left lying on the floor. The owner, a 24-year-old University student, told police that a pair of sunglasses was missing.

A collection of power tools, including two drills, a grinder, screw gun, and band saw worth a combined $760 have been stolen from a metal storage bin at Princeton Medical Center. Police report the tools are owned by a metal construction firm from Mountainside that had done some work at an addition to the hospital in July and had returned.

A golf bag and clubs worth $1,400 were stolen last month from a storage area at the Springdale Club here. Police said the owner, a 73-year-old Hopewell Township resident, had visited the club to participate in a July 16 tournament. He left his clubs there and when he returned ten days later they were gone.

GIANT CUKES: Umberto Tedeschi of 300 Elm Road shows off the 24-inch-long cucumbers he grew at 65 Allison Road, a property that he cares for belonging to John Rassweller. A resident of Princeton since 1970, Mr. Tedeschi was originally from the Province of Isernia, Italy. For five generations, his family was considered the best vegetable gardeners, he says, and he too was the best gardener on his own land. He also describes himself as a specialist in making home wine and in trimming grape plants.

ident left his bike unlocked on the sidewalk at Nassau and Pine streets while he went inside a store for a few minutes. Time enough for someone to make off with his $160 Raleigh. While dining in Wilcox Hall on the University campus last week, a student left his wallet on a table and walked away.

When he returned, his wallet containing credit cards but, luckily, no cash, had been stolen.

Trenton Juvenile Charged In Stolen Bike Possession

A 17-year-old Trenton juvenile has been charged with juvenile delinquency, namely that he was in possession of a stolen bicycle. The youth was later released to a family member, pending possible further action by a juvenile court.

Shortly before midnight Sunday, a University security guard saw four youths in a University lot off Olden Street, standing near a 1979 Ford Bronco parked at one end of the lot. As the guard approached, the four observed him and fled on foot.

A short time later, while security and Borough police were still at the scene, the driver of the Bronco, owned by a family member, returned.

Inside the Bronco in plain view was a 21-speed Schwinn bicycle valued at $400 which, police said, had been stolen earlier that evening from a home on Patton Avenue. The juvenile was confronted by police and taken into custody.

Drivers Fined Monday In Borough Traffic Court

Princeton area drivers were fined Monday in Borough court.

Douglas Smith, 66 Thoreau Drive, Plainsboro, was fined $1,026 and had his license revoked for one year for driving while on a revoked list.

John Wagen-Seller, Springwood Drive, Lawrenceville, paid $88 for speeding; Mindy Prucnal, 9 Kimberly Court, $68 for obstructing passage, and Gerda Ellen, White Pine Circle, Lawrenceville, $68, for failure to yield the right of way at an intersection.

In a criminal court complaint, Larry O. McKellar, 12 Lytle Street, was fined $50 and $50 to the Violent Crime Compensation Board for damage to property at an eating club on Prospect Avenue.

Quiet Week for Crime In Township Last Week

It was a quiet week for crime in the Township last week.

At Tuesday's weekly press conference, Lt. Mario Musso had only three brief incidents to report. An 18- by 15-inch silver platter was stolen from a Princeton-Kingston Road home that was entered during the afternoon last week without force. The $100 platter was swiped from a table near the front door.

In an act of criminal mischief, the metal framework supports of three canopies at the Community Park pool complex were collapsed. Damage to a pair of blue and white canopies was placed at $150.

Patricia Ann Barry, 38, of Bernardsville, was charged with trespassing on the University campus. After being warned by Proctor Cathy Monahan about trespassing at McCosh Hall in the morning, Barry was seen again at 12:20 in the afternoon near Baker Rink. She was taken into custody by police, who were notified and issued a summons.

A check with the Bernardsville police department revealed Barry was wanted on a 1991 warrant there for contempt of court.

New Initiative Makes Recycling Easier

Mercer County Executive Robert Prunetti and Mercer County Improvement Authority Chairman Jay Destribats have announced plans to streamline and greatly improve the collection system for Mercer County's successful curbside recycling program.

Within the next few months residents will receive a green recycling bucket in which they will be asked to place newspapers, magazines, and junk mail. It will no longer be necessary to separate and tie these items in bundles for collection.

Mr. Prunetti said this initiative will make Mercer's program the most user-friendly recycling collection system in the state and perhaps the nation. "We are the first county in New Jersey to allow the co-mingling of recyclable paper items for curbside collection," he added.

Also, beginning September 1, residents will be able to place brown corrugated cardboard at the curb, as is, for collection. Mr. Destribats said the requirement that cardboard be collapsed, cut and tied in small bundles has been a disincentive to recycle for some residents, and more and more cardboard has been showing up in the residential waste stream as a result.

"We are asking residents to continue to tie cardboard in small bundles until the change takes effect in September," he added. Brown corrugated cardboard is a designated recyclable material in Mercer and it is illegal to dispose of it in the household trash.

It is hoped the new green buckets can be distributed to residents in the curbside collection program within 60 to 90 days.

Atom Bombings Marked In Ceremony at Institute

The Coalition for Nuclear Disarmament will hold its annual ceremony commemorating the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki on Thursday evening at the Institute for Advanced Study. The date is the eve of the anniversary of the Hiroshima bombing, as well as the 30th anniversary of the signing of the partial Test Ban Treaty, which is also being recognized.

The event will start at 6 with a bring-your-own picnic for people of all ages. At 7:15 a brief membership meeting of the Coalition will officially vote on changing the name of the organization to "Coalition for Peace Action." The proposed change has received overwhelming support from the membership but must be officially voted on to take effect.

The program of speakers, music and dance will begin at 7:30. There will be a simultaneous program for children. Speakers will include Allison Post, a recent high school graduate from Skillman who visited Hiroshima last summer and this year made an educational video to help young people learn about the atomic bombing; Prof. Frank von Hippel, a Princeton University physicist and nuclear weapons expert who last month received a McArthur Fellowship, the so-called "genius award." Dr. von Hippel played an instrumental role in persuading Energy Secretary Hazel O'Leary to oppose resumption of U.S. nuclear weapons testing recently. President Clinton then adopted that recommendation.

Also, Bob Lawrence, president of the Trenton NAACP who is coordinating the NAACP's state-wide participation in the 30th Anniversary March on Washington, scheduled for August 28.

At approximately 8:30 the program will conclude at the Institute's pond with singing and the floating of candles in the traditional Japanese ceremony to mourn the lost souls of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, and to express hope for a nuclear-weapons-free future. The program is expected to conclude at about 9.

The public is invited to attend the picnic and ceremony free of charge. No alcoholic beverages are permitted. In the event of rain, the membership meeting and program will be held indoors at the Institute's West Building lecture hall beginning at 7:15 p.m.

past year. The awards are given to projects in which the owners have expended significant care and effort in historic preservation.

1 Evelyn Place, at the corner of Evelyn Place and Nassau Street, was recognized as an appropriate Speculative Rehabilitation Project. Former owners/developers Celia Dingle Ryan, Russell Wilkinson and Eileen Guggenheim received the awards, along with the current owners, the Rev. and Mrs. Gary Wilkerson. The house is a circa 1907 example of the Dutch Colonial revival style and is located in the Jugtown National Register Historic District.

In 1992 the property was purchased by the owners/developers and was completely renovated in order to be resold on a speculative basis. The exterior was restored and re-shingled, with few modifications to the original design and preserving original materials wherever possible.

The house was once home to Eric Kahler, the noted German writer, philosopher and historian. Kahler came to Princeton at the urging of Thomas Mann and lived at 1 Evelyn Place from 1942 until his death in 1970. Kahler's circle of friends included Albert Einstein, as well as other notable scholars and artists. As a result of the intellectual gatherings there, the house was given the nickname "Little Parnassus" by a young friend of Kahler.

The Graduate College

The architectural firm Short and Ford and Partners received the award for Appropriate Interior Rehabilitation of an Institutional Project, for their restoration work on The Graduate College, Princeton University. The building, designed by Ralph Adams Cram and constructed in 1913, is an example of collegiate gothic architecture.

It is listed on the National register of Historic Places and contains the 170-foot Grover Cleveland Memorial Tower.

The restoration work included asbestos removal, mechanical and electrical replacements, new plumbing, telecom-

Bicycle Event Saturday By Free Wheelers Club

The Princeton Free Wheelers on Saturday will sponsor the Princeton Bicycling Event which offers rides of various lengths plus free bicycle adjustment at the start, with food and water stops along the way. Last year's event attracted some 2,600 riders from many states.

The club sponsors Saturday and Sunday bicycle rides in the Central Jersey - Eastern Pennsylvania area each weekend, and evening rides in the summer. Outside the area are trips to Bermuda, Canada, Delaware, Vermont, and Lancaster County, Pa. Tours are available for all levels of experience, from beginning adult to expert rider.

For more information, call Michael Suber at 921-6685.

The Princeton Free Wheelers is also participating in the state's Adopt-A-Highway program, designed to beautify New Jersey highways.

The club has adopted two miles of Route 206, from Nassau Street south to the border with Lawrence Township. Signs erected by NJ Department of Transportation mark each end of the adopted segment. The state has provided participating club members with trash bags and reflective vests for the litter clean up, which begins at 1 p.m. on September 18. Motorists are asked to drive cautiously in the pickup area, as Free Wheeler volunteers will be walking both sides of the highway.

The Free Wheelers is one of the first bicycle clubs in New Jersey to participate in the Adopt-A-Highway program. Club Project Leader John Gianiodis has promised additional pick-ups later in the year.

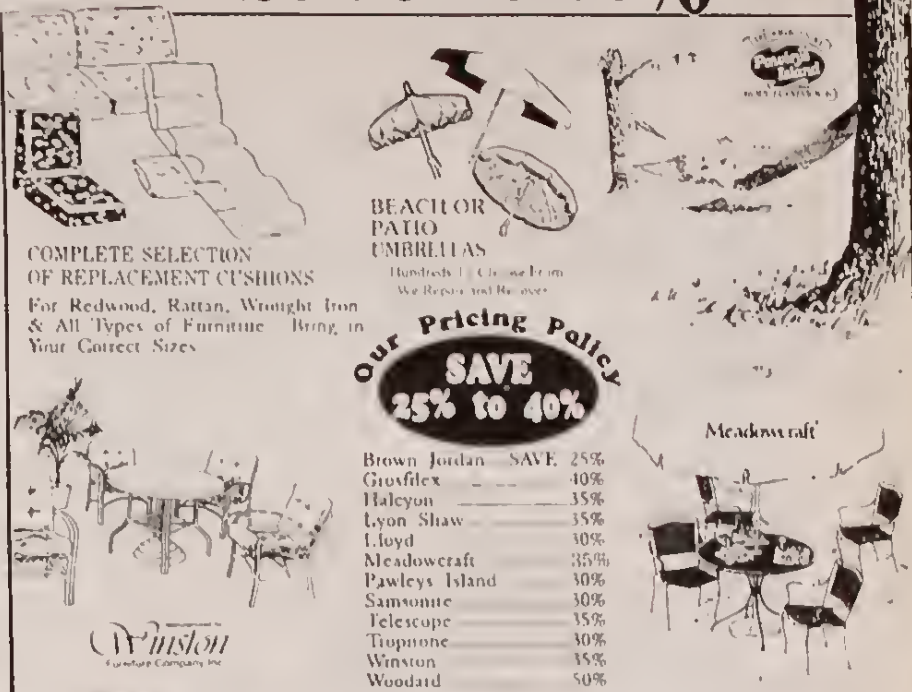

Founded in 1980, the club now has nearly 1,000 members. Benefits of membership include a monthly newsletter describing the rides, meetings

Director of Guidance Hired by School District
The School Board last Tuesday night approved the hiring of Robert Shillito as director of guidance. He will begin September 1.

The addition of Mr. Shillito brings the Princeton High School Guidance Department up to three, still one counselor fewer than in previous years.

The two guidance counselors who left the high school this past spring were Greg Youngman and Richard Saldon.

Mr. Shillito, a resident of Clinton, has been director of guidance and counseling in the South Orange/Maplewood District since 1990. He served as principal of Franklin High School in Somerset from 1985 to 1990.

His salary is in the $75,000 range, said Board President John Clearwater.

market conditions at the time the project was conceived. The Township opened up the bidding process by sending out requests for proposals to other developers. Isles Inc. of Trenton, a 10-year-old community development organization that has successfully rehabilitated a number of individual homes for low-income families in Trenton, was the only other organization to submit a formal proposal.

Mr. Poole says that the larger developers of townhouses in the area, like Trammel Crow, K. Hovnanian and Trafalgar, all said the project was too small for them to bid on. The fact that the infrastructure is already in place and that a certain number of units are expected to be built in a prescribed ratio of market to affordable, places constraints on a potential bidder.

While not at liberty to reveal which developer's proposal is favored by the Housing Board before the meeting with Township Committee, Mr. Poole says that both Orleans and Isles have "interesting proposals" architecturally and structurally and in the amenities that are offered. He thinks Committee may want to hear presentations from each of the developers rather than rely solely on the recommendation of the Housing Board.

Apartments Completed

Meanwhile, one of the six apartment buildings at Washington Oaks which will contain units reserved for families in the low- and moderate-income brackets as well as some market rate units, has been completed. Calton Homes, the developer of the 300-unit Washington Oaks project between Route 206 and Princeton Pike, held a lottery in June to determine priorities for allotting the affordable units.

According to Mr. Poole, there were at the time 350 applicants numbered in the order they were received. On the day of the lottery, he and Shirley Bishop, the Housing Board's consultant, drew numbers out of a hat to establish the priorities. Half the 60 affordable units at Washington Oaks will be sold to individuals and families in the low-income bracket, half to individuals and families in the moderate-income bracket.

Prices of the units will be determined by family size and income. According to Council on Affordable Housing (COAH) rules, a family should not pay more than 28 percent of its income in shelter costs. Those costs include mortgage payments, homeowners insurance and condominium fees. Calton Homes requested that interest rates be pegged at seven percent to help it calculate the unit prices.

The developer was experiencing a chicken or the egg situation in which it needed to know what the interest rate would be in order to put a price on a unit and banks wanted to know the price of the unit before they would discuss mortgage terms. The Housing Board voted Monday to grant Calton Homes' request.

But it was reported that since the lottery only three people had applied for mortgages. Mr. Poole said he thought there was a clerical problem on Calton's part that slowed the process. He said that in going through the applications he was distressed to find a number of applicants who did not live or work in the Princeton area — that places like New York City or King of Prussia, Pa., were showing up on the application. Ideally, Mr. Poole would like to see the affordable units go to people who live and work in Princeton or the Princeton area. He points out that people will be paying too much in commuter costs if they worked as far away as New York City, Clinton, N.J. or King of Prussia, Pa. Judith Hancock on the Housing Board said she thought the mortgage application process would eliminate these people if not enough of their limited income was available for meeting mortgage obligations.

Parking Meter Feeder Unnecessarily Harassed

To the Editor of Town Topics:
Following is a copy of a letter sent to Princeton Borough Mayor Morvin R. Reed.

On July 20 I received a ticket for meter feeding in the Princeton Borough parking lot on Spring Street and have paid said ticket. I arrived at the parking lot at 12 p.m. and had an appointment to leave at 3 p.m. The parking lot was virtually vacant (since we are dealing with the middle of July) and at 2:15 - 2:30 p.m. I was given a ticket for meter feeding.

Was I guilty? Yes! But it is the attitude of the Princeton official and your lack of response to the problems of the office workers of this town, as displayed by previous correspondence, that causes many of us to not only show our displeasure at the polls, but also to consider being just another person who has been forced to move out of town.

Civil enforcement of regulations where there is a need is understandable. This type of arbitrary harassment and attempt to gain financial advantage at the cost of your tax payers is inexcusable.

Preserve the Kiosk: Move It to New Site

To the Editor of Town Topics:

Recent expressions of concern by a number of our residents prompted by plans to remove the Witherspoon Street kiosk deserve careful review by Borough Council. Leaving aside unnecessary and even silly politicizing comments that have been made about the Bank and the Council, it remains a fact that the kiosk serves a valuable purpose in the Community: it informs us and, more important, it helps unite us.

Bringing us notices of cultural activities, bargains available, missing pets, it puts us in touch with unknown neighbors in a more immediate way than any newspaper. But it is an eyesore, or so I believe it would seem to most of us if it suddenly appeared in our front yard.

So what do we do? We've read editorial opinion on beautification but can't help remembering who it was forced acceptance of those grotesque vending machines that mar townscapes nationwide. We've heard arguments at Council meetings, and we've seen a petition that asks for a delay. Why? To sanitize and police the kiosk may make it prettier hut, I think, would destroy most of what's appealing and useful about it.

I believe it should be preserved but moved. The Bank offered to pay for that but left open the question of new location. They've had the political acumen and influence to gain acceptance of their request. I suggest they employ similar efforts to establish a new central location. Destruction of the kiosk should not be an option.

Boychoir Cancels Tour Planned for South Africa

To the Editor of Town Topics:

I write as Chairman of the Board of the American Boychoir to report on a decision this past week to cancel an announced five-week concert tour to South Africa.

During the three years of planning for the tour, the Board had considered both political and safety concerns when it made its decision to accept the invitation extended by the extraordinary Drakensburg Boychoir.

However, the most recent terrorist massacre in a suburban Capetown church just 10 days ago prompted an immediate re-evaluation. Phone calls were made to the American Embassy in Pretoria which included input from its security head.

Other South African and American sources were also contacted, and, in light of apparent increased tension in anticipation of the upcoming elections, the Executive Committee of the Board did not feel it could be responsible for the 30 boys who were scheduled to make the trip.

The hosts had planned an extensive tour to many parts of South Africa to promote the mutual understanding of our peoples through music and through children. The students and parents were keenly disappointed but were, when advised of the decision, in largest part understanding.

While it is not known when another such invitation might be extended, the school has already acknowledged its hoped at some future time the trip might be re-scheduled.

Harrison/Hartley Corner Needs a Traffic Light

To the Editor of Town Topics:

Following is a copy of a letter I sent to Lynda C. Brugno, Director, Transportation & Infrastructure, Mercer County.

I understand from Patrolman Mark Emann, Traffic Safety Officer of Princeton Township, that consideration is being given to the installation of a traffic light at the corner of Harrison Street and Hartley Avenue in Princeton. What's more, a group of neighbors is circulating a petition to support the action.

Ms. Brugno, this is an intersection waiting for a nasty accident. In fact, Patrolman Emann tells me that there have already been "numerous accidents" and "despite heavy speed enforcement, vehicles continue to exceed the speed limit of 25 mph." He further points out that there were 609 speeding summonses issued in that sector of Harrison Street in one recent 16-month period.

so, please visit the intersection yourself during rush hour. Join the cars — three and four behind each other on Hartley — waiting to cross or turn onto Harrison. They inch forward, the more impatient motorists leaping out during minimal breaks in the traffic, sometimes causing brake screeches, near collisions, the shouting of oaths.

And crossing Harrison from the northeast corner of Hartley is especially hazardous because of a huge fat tree trunk that obstructs driver vision.

When might we expect the installation of a light?

Township Cannot Afford All Proposed Projects

To the Editor of Town Topics:

We would like to compliment Jan Buck for his thoughtful and provocative letter to the editor [TOWN TOPICS, July 28] in which he reviewed some of the major projects now confronting Princeton Township and called for the creation of a Citizens Committee for Fiscal Responsibility.

An Untidy Kiosk Is a Comforting Sign of Life

To the Editor of Town Topics:
"The kiosk is an eyesore, sheds flying papers of dubious cultural value, has a mob of menacing people congregate around it at all hours, and completely obscures the beautiful bank facade behind it."
All of the above is complete nonsense. On behalf of the human fraction of the Princeton population, this letter is in definite support of the little kiosk.

Our life as humans is mostly untidy, has numerous disorganized events and wrinkles, is generally nonsterile (having been born, after all). We therefore look for supporting signs of life not only in outer space but also in our neighborhood, even on Nassau Street.

The warmth of the somewhat ruffled kiosk, and the constant presence of people around it, is a comforting sign of life. After all, the eye can tire of all those neatly built, symmetrical, very clean (hundred or so) banks on Nassau Street, which serve as contrast.

The undersigned has nothing personally against banks, and although feeling definitely outnumbered by them, still has a warm nod in reserve for the uniform late-rocoo bow-legged furniture and gold trim, so neatly populated with earnest, positively-approving bankers.

In the meantime, let us not forget that, although the banks are so vastly important, the streets are ours to walk and enjoy. We humans do not want to tell the bank to get Scandinavian furniture, and, in return, do not need the bank's advice (or money) on how our sidewalks should or should not look.
All in the same principle: Do not should on me, and I shall not should on you.

If anything, we need more human warmth in our community, to which the one kiosk is contributing, and the many banks are not.

Respectfully (really),
DR. MOSHE BEN-REUVEN

We agree with him in two major areas: Princeton Township taxpayers just cannot afford to pay for all the projects and proposals which are now being advanced; and there is a need for citizens concerned with fiscal responsibility to be present at Township Committee meetings and make their voices heard.

We have always favored financial restraint in our spending policies and priorities to keep our taxes at the lowest possible level. It was for this reason that we led the fight to return to our taxpayers the $128,000 gross receipts tax payment received from the State.

We therefore welcome the input from the Committee for Financial Responsibility, just as we welcome comments from all citizens of Princeton Township on these and all other Township matters.

Premier of New Musical Set for Bristol Chapel

Pioneer Songs, a new musical based on the early wagon trains to California, will be presented in concert form for its world premiere on Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at Bristol Chapel of Westminster Choir College.

The following musicians will take part in the performance: Joy Bechtler, lyric soprano, made her national debut with Opera Festival of New Jersey in June, 1992 and her international debut in Tel Aviv in August, 1991. Miss Bechtler has performed the roles of Micaela, Despina, Nanetta, Mme. Li-doine and Fiordiligi.

Polly Hargrove, mezzo-soprano, has sung under the baton of Leonard Bernstein, Zubin Mehta and Ricardo Muti. She has performed in the Spoleto Festival, and is in her sixth season with the Opera Festival of New Jersey.

Martin Hargrove, bass-baritone, has appeared with Opera Festival of New Jersey, The Metropolitan Opera Guild and the Pennsylvania Opera Theater. Recently, he appeared in "Live from Lincoln Center" in Puccini's Gianni Schicchi.

David Ronis, tenor, has appeared with Opera Festival of New Jersey, Florentine Opera, New York City Opera National Company, 92nd Street Y, Hong Kong Philharmonic, Vienna State Opera, La Scala, Kennedy Center, Aspen, Wolf Trap and Spoleto festivals.

The composer of Pioneer Songs, Eric T. Houghton, who will perform as pianist for the work's premiere, has been on the Artist Faculty at the Westminster Conservatory since 1984. Mr. Houghton has performed most recently in Princeton and St. Louis, Mo. He has performed more than 30 recitals throughout the United States. This is his first major work.

The lyrics of Pioneer Songs were written by Robert Marquis. Veteran of 25 years in corporate communications, Mr. Marquis became a piano student of Mr. Houghton in 1992.

The story of Pioneer Songs is drawn from the experiences of the pioneer families who migrated by wagon train to California in the 1840s. Earlier this year, selections from Pioneer Songs were performed as part of the Spring Musicale at Westminster Conservatory of Music.

There will be no charge for admission. Seating will be unreserved.

ART
Exhibits
The Trenton Artists Workshop Association will present an exhibit of works by members new to the organization this year. The exhibit will also feature a reunion showing of works by winners of the TAWA-sponsored Stockton Memorial Scholarship and the Ed Holman Memorial Scholarship.
Juried by a panel of TAWA members, including artists Paula Bellando and Bonnie Randall, the show will be on view at Ellarslie, the Trenton City Museum in Cadwalader Park, from August 14 to September 5. A reception for the artists will be held on Saturday, August 14, from 6 to 8 p.m.
The Trenton City Museum is located on Parkside Avenue and West State Street, in the heart of Trenton's Cadwalader Park. Museum hours are Tuesday through Saturday from 11 to 3 and Sunday from 2 to 4.

An exhibition of works by 33 African-American artists will open at the New Jersey State Museum in Trenton on Saturday. The exhibition, "Dream Singers, Story Tellers: An African-American Presence," is the first cultural exchange between the State of New Jersey and the Prefecture of Fukui, its sister-state in Japan. Prior to its return to New Jersey, the exhibition was presented in three cities in Japan.
"This is an exhibition about the materials of culture, not the artifacts of race," said State Museum Assistant Curator of Fine Art Alison Weld. "It serves to bridge the differences among cultures through its belief in universals."
The 155 works in the exhibition are organized first by aesthetic groupings and second through evidence of an underlying narrative. Story telling and dream singing are the terms used to evoke the underlying motivations, as well as to describe the important qualities in the works themselves, which range from abstract to obviously figurative.

Chemical Bank Is Host In National Racing Series

The Chemical Bank Corporate Challenge, the nation's largest participatory racing series, will premiere in Princeton on Tuesday at 7 p.m.

The race will start and finish at the Chemical Bank New Jersey office building on College Road in the Forrestal Center. Almost a thousand runners are expected to participate. World-class runner Grete Waitz will be present to discuss the importance of fitness and health.

Participants in the Princeton Chemical Bank Corporate Challenge will feature employees from major corporations, including New Jersey-based companies such as AT&T, IBM, Educational Testing Service, Chanel Inc. and A.G. Edwards & Sons.

The Princeton Chemical Bank Corporate Challenge is part of an 18-race series, with 15 races in the United States and three in London, Oslo and Frankfurt. Since 1977, the series has grown from 200 runners and 50 companies at the first race in New York City to nearly 120,000 runners from more than 6,100 companies in 1992.

"We're very excited to be hosting the first Princeton Chemical Bank Corporate Challenge," said Aristides Georgantas, Chairman and CEO, Chemical Bank New Jersey. "The enthusiasm for this event from businesses in Central and Southern New Jersey has been tremendous."

Scoring for the Corporate Challenge is done on a team basis. Men's teams consist of five men; women's teams, of three women; and coed teams, two men and two women. Because there are no pre-set teams, each company can enter as many runners as they like and take advantage of combining the best times of its individual runners. Awards are given to the top five teams in each of the three divisions.

Special awards will be presented to the top finisher among the chief executive officers and to the company with the most participants.

The entry fee for the Princeton Chemical Bank Corporate Challenge is $13. A portion of the entry fees will be donated to the Metropolitan and New Jersey Associations of USA Track and Field. For company entry information, call race coordinator Dan Brannen at (201) 829-1542 or visit a Chemical Bank New Jersey branch.

Chemical Bank Clinches Summer Basketball Title

There is a new league champion in the Princeton Recreation Department's Summer Adult Basketball League.

Chemical Bank clinched the regular season title Friday night at the Community Park court with a 79-55 win over Bergman & Barrett. The Bankers have lost only once while every other team has at least three losses.

Regular season action will end with three games this Wednesday evening and two on Friday, as there is a real scramble for the remaining playoff berths. The playoffs will begin on Monday.

Last Monday, Princeton Sports Medicine defeated Bergman & Barrett, 65-53. Vint Henley led the victors with 17 points, followed by Tennyson Lewis, who pumped in 15, and Jimmy Glover, who had 13. Geoff Card's game-high 23 pac-

Ben Stentz reached double figures with 11.

The league champion for the past three years, Carnevale Disposal knocked off Custom Essence, 61-53, behind the scoring of John Thompson (15 points), Marv Tard (14) and Erik Daniels (10).

Custom Essence's Mike D'Allegro led all scorers with 21.

Former Princeton High player Ernst Jean-Louis had his 15 minutes of fame. Jean-Louis came out of the stands and proceeded to score 20 points for the losers.

All perfectly legal League rules stipulate when a team has only four players, rather than forfeit, it can choose a player from among the spectators, as long as he is not a member of any other team.

"Our philosophy is to play, have fun and get some exercise," said league commissioner Doug Snyder.

In a third game, United Jersey Bank received 12 points each from Mussa Bailey, Courtney Fitch and Julian Tate en route to a 51-43 triumph over Princeton Youth Sports.

PYS, comprised of Princeton High players, was led by Bram Reynolds with 18 points and Kirk Webber with 11. The game marked the return of Reynolds, a 1,000-point scorer in his jun-

One of the most unbelievable baseball teams of all time was the Minnesota Twins of 1987 ... They won the pennant that year even though — incredibly — they gave up more runs than they scored during the regular season! ... The Twins scored a total of only 786 runs for the season while giving up 806 — yet, amazingly, they still finished in first place, and then went on to win the playoffs and the World Series.

Surprisingly, 3 out of 5 people at the age of 70 or older will spend time in a nursing home. Please call us to discuss long term care coverages.

Can you name the only person in sports history who's been chosen to the pro football Hall of Fame AND the baseball Hall of Fame? ... The only person to achieve that is Cal Hubbard ... He was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame for his many years as a big league umpire ... Before that, Hubbard had been an All-Pro lineman in football for the Giants and Packers, and was elected to pro football's Hall of Fame — becoming the only person ever selected to both.

Here's an oddity ... Although Penn State joins the Big Ten conference in football this year, that conference will keep the name "Big Ten" — even though it now has ELEVEN teams.

for year for the Little Tigers and almost certain to become the school's all-time scorer. Reynolds last month attended basketball camps in Florida, Iowa, North Carolina and Arizona. "He's been on the move," said Snyder, his coach at Princeton High.

In one of two games Friday night, Princeton Youth Sports was in action again because of a quirk in the schedule in which United Jersey Bank needed to get in an 11th game. PYS, coached this night by Snyder's assistant at PHS, Peter Pace, stopped the Bankers, 75-67.

Said Snyder, "It might have been the best game my team has played all summer. We had nice scoring balance."

Webber led five PYS players in double figures with 25. Matt Highland had 15, Dave Uitti 14, Marquis Johnson 11 and Tracy Wade, 10. Mussa Bailey of UJB connected for a game-high 26 and received help from Dave Cary and Daye Collier, who combined for 32 points.

Chemical Bank followed with its 79-55 clincher over B&B. Vincente Bowman led the victors with 32 points, the best offensive performance of the week. Wade Hall added 16 and Richard Gunnell, 12.

John Procaccini, a center on last year's Princeton High team, freed from Snyder's insistence that he confine his scoring to underneath the basket, paced B&B with 23 points. One of the league's leading scorers, Procaccini scored nine of his 23 on a trio of three-pointers.

Geoff Card contributed 11 points and Scott Schroeder, a teammate of Procaccini's at PHS, hit for 10.

Five Overtimes

In what had to be the league's most pulsating game this summer, United Jersey Bank last Wednesday outlasted B&B, 66-61, in five overtimes. UJB had rallied from an 11-point deficit in the second half to send it into overtime.

Said Snyder, "It reminded me of our game with Ewing two years ago which went into seven overtimes." PHS lost that memorable marathon by two points.

Julian Tate was high for UJB with 19 points and Mussa Bailey added 14, but the pressure performer was Dave Cary, who netted nine of his 14 points during the five OTs. Procaccini with 14 points and Card with 16 kept B&B in contention all the way.

In other games that night, Carnevale Disposal topped Princeton Sports Medicine, 53-48, and SMB crushed Custom Essence, 70-38.

Brian Williams and Freddie Young connected for 11 and 10 points for Carnevale, while Vint Henley with 21 and Tennyson Lewis with 15 accounted for 75 percent of the losers' scoring.

Alberto Baptiste was the top gun for SMB with 24 points, aided by Keith Jones who chipped in with 14. Former Hun School standout, Mike D'Allegro connected for 19 points — half of Custom Essence's total.

Eastern Express First In Summer Swim Meet

The Princeton-based Eastern Express swim team placed first overall out of 38 teams from seven states at the third annual Summer Sizzle swim meet at Princeton University's DeNunzio Pool recently. Express swimmers established 18 new meet records as 63 new marks were set out of 118 events. In addition, 14 Express swimmers qualified for the Eastern Zone Swimming Championships which will be held in Fairfax, Va., in mid-August.

UNCONTESTED: SMB's Ray Gregory goes in for uncontested layup in action in Summer Basketball League.

A pair of 12-year-olds paced the Express with 10 new meet records, including one new state mark. Jill Vance, a seventh grader at Hillsborough Middle School, won six events in the 11-12 category, setting new meet records in each: 50 meter freestyle (28.78); 100 freestyle (1:03.69); 200 freestyle (2:16.45); 400 freestyle (4:46.98); 50 butterfly (30.97); 100 butterfly (1:10.04). Wansley's time in the 200 I.M. was a new state record.

Stanford-bound Kevin Radvany of Hopewell set meet records in the distance freestyle events: 400 freestyle (4:09.96); 800 freestyle (8:31.55) and 1500 freestyle (16:09.14). Radvany was fourth in the 400 I.M.

Jack Schwerzler, a graduate of Rider College, won three events in the Senior division, setting new records in the 100 freestyle (53.47) and 200 freestyle (1:57.65), while also placing first in the 500 freestyle. Schwerzler was sixth in the 100 butterfly and seventh in the 400 freestyle and 200 I.M.

New Record for Potts

Andy Potts, a junior at Princeton High School, won the 400 I.M. in 4:37.11, edging out Olympian Ron Karnaugh, to establish a new meet record. Potts was second in the 400 and 1500 freestyle events. The Express senior group of Radvany, Schwerzler, Potts and Marshall Preston, a senior at Princeton High School, also set a new meet record in the 400 freestyle relay (3:46.81).

Rounding out the record-setting performances for the Express was the 10-and-under 200 medley relay team of Katie Stores, a fifth grader at Hopewell Elementary; Molly Purvis, a fifth grader at Toll Gate Elementary School in Pennington; Michelle Erwin, a fifth grader at Princeton Montessori School; and Edyta Szecepankowska, a sixth grader at Lawrence Intermediate School (2:40.98). The quartet also tied the record in the 200 freestyle relay.

Frank Guan, a sixth grader at Lawrence Intermediate, swam away with first places in the 50 breaststroke (41.03), 100 breaststroke (1:29.33) and 200 I.M. (2:54.71) in the 10-and-under division. Guan was third in the 100 backstroke, fifth in the 200 freestyle, sixth in the 50 freestyle and eighth in the 100 butterfly.

Brian Stefanick, an eighth grader at West Windsor-Plainsboro Upper Elementary, won the 100 backstroke (1:09.16) and 200 backstroke (2:28.86) in the 13-14 division. He was fifth in the 200 I.M., sixth in the 200 freestyle and 200 butterfly and seventh in the 400 I.M.

Kaisa Greenberg, also an eighth grader at West Windsor-Plainsboro Upper Elementary, won the 100 breaststroke in the Senior Division in 1:18.30. She placed third in the 200 breaststroke and sixth in the 400 freestyle.

In other senior action, Heather Payne, a junior at Princeton Day School, placed third in the 100 backstroke (1:10.38) and fourth in the 200 backstroke (2:28.38). She was sixth in the 200 I.M. and seventh in the 400 I.M.

Preston Takes Third

Catherine Preston, a sophomore at Princeton High school, took third place in the 800 freestyle (9:23.40), fifth place in the 1500 freestyle and seventh place in the 400 freestyle. Emily Morland, a senior at Hopewell Valley Central High School, swam to seventh place in the 800 freestyle (9:47.25). Jen Stores, a junior at Hopewell HIGHEST RHYTHMIC SCORER: Twelve-year-old Caryn Lee of Princeton gained the highest all-around score in a rhythmic gymnastic competition held this month.

Princeton Girl Is Tops In Rhythmic Gymnastics

Twelve-year-old Caryn Lee of Princeton this month received the highest all-around score for all competitors at the Rhythmic Gymnastics Competition of the Garden State Games. She also received the highest individual score for the rope event.

Caryn has had a successful competition season. In May, she competed in the Rhythmic Gymnastics National Qualifying Competition in Detroit, where she placed tenth, allowing her to compete in the U.S. National Rhythmic Gymnastics Championships at the Colorado Springs Olympic Training Center.

She was among 25 girls nationwide who received the Scholar/Athlete Award for outstanding scholastic achievements and excellence in the sport of rhythmic gymnastics at the 1993 National Championships Awards Banquet in June. Last fall, after scoring the second highest in the region, Caryn was selected as one of 25 promising young rhythmic gymnasts to participate in the USGF Developmental Training Camp at the Olympic Training Center in Lake Placid.

A member of the All's Stars Rhythmic Gymnastics Team, Caryn began her training in rhythmic gymnastics at age 7, under the coaching of Luciana Janowska, former Polish National Team member. During the past year she was coached by Ileana Vogelaar, former coach for the Dutch and Australian National teams. An eighth-grader at John Witherspoon Middle School, she is the daughter of Linda Eckert and Wei-li Lee of 144 Riverside Drive.

Blue Finishes Number 1 In Boys Basketball Play

In final games in the four-week Princeton Boys Summer Basketball League, Young Men last week upset Blue, 33-22, but it did not prevent Blue from finishing on top with a 5-2 record.

Three players combined to score 31 of Young Men's 33 points. Shahid Abdul-Karim led all scorers with 16, Max Wright added nine points and Linwood players 45 and over and one for those 55 and over. Awards will be presented to the winner and finalist in each division.

The entry fee is $8 per player for County residents, $11 for nonresidents. Applications are available at the Outdoor Tennis Center or by calling the Center Office at 448-2088. Deadline for submitting applications is August 4.

Princeton Manufacturing will conduct a tennis clinic for all ages at the Outdoor Tennis Center on Sunday. Cost for registration is $3 per player. Applications are available at the Tennis Center.

Edward E. Jones

OBITUARIES

Edward E. Jones, 66, Princeton University Stuart Professor of Psychology, died of heart failure July 30 while vacationing in Emerald Isle, N.C.

Prof. Jones was a social psychologist widely known for his pioneering work on how people understand each other's motives and dispositions. He was one of a small number of psychologists who launched the field of "person perception" some 40 years ago, and the sustained program of experimental research he began at that time culminated in his recent book, Interpersonal Perception.

His earlier book, Ingratiation (1964), explores the variety of strategies through which people present themselves to others and won a Century Psychology Series Award. Prof. Jones also co-authored Foundations of Social Psychology and Social Stigma, and co-edited Attribution: Perceiving the Causes of Behavior.

Prof. Jones received his A.B. and Ph.D. degrees from Harvard. In 1953 he joined the Duke University faculty as an assistant professor of psychology and advanced to associate professor in 1958 and to professor in 1961. He chaired the Duke Psychology Department from 1970 to 1973. In 1977 he came to Princeton as the Stuart Professor of Psychology.

*Prof. Jones was awarded the American Psychological Association's Distinguished Scientific Contribution Award in 1977 and the Society for Experimental Social Psychology's Distinguished Scientist Award in 1987. A past president of the Society for Personality and Social Psychology, he was a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and of the American Psychological Society. He was a two-time fellow at the Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences.

He is survived by his wife, Virginia, four daughters, Sarah Jones Cuskey of Chappaqua, N.Y., Caroline of Cambridge, Mass., Amelia of Los Angeles, and Janet of Princeton; two sons, Todd and Jason, both of Durham, N.C.; two brothers, Richard Jeffrey of Chicago and Llewellyn Hosford of Los Alamos, N.M.; and six grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held Wednesday, August 11, at 3 in the Princeton University Chapel. Memorial contributions in lieu of flowers may be sent to the E.E. Jones Memorial Fund, Department of Psychology, Princeton University.

"BROWNIE"

They call me "Brownie," but I'm really black and tan. If you know your dogs, you'll discover my Pointer and Shepherd relatives. I carry on their lines with pride. And am I staunch. Anyone who needs a watchdog won't be disappointed in me. I am a trusty sentry. My fierceness is only for the threatening. My heart and soul are gentleness itself.

I'm only two years old, but am I street smart. After all that experience in West Windsor, nobody puts anything over on me! If you have some property to be defended, just let me strut my stuff! And in the peaceful hours, you will see how special I can be in all the other ways of dogs and people. Outdoors is my realm, and I need you to return me to it soon.

Brownie is one of the dogs available for adoption at our shelter. Call Lee Ann at 921-6122 to set up an appointment.

PROVINCE LINE ROAD

Built by Bowers in yesteryear, this handsome brick and frame Colonial blends perfectly with its almost two acres of sweeping lawns, towering oaks, perennial gardens, and a picturesque fish pond. The interior plan, architecturally oriented to the garden views, has a wide entry hall, well proportioned living room with fireplace and two pairs of French doors to a raised stone terrace and a formal dining room. Cozy study with brick corner fireplace and a lovely updated kitchen with island and breakfast space looking to the gardens, plus a flower-laundry room and powder room. Upstairs two bedrooms, each with its own bath, plus a private master suite with its own bath. On the third floor, a wonderful teen world with two newly renovated bedrooms and bath. In all, live bedrooms and four and one-half baths. All of this most tastefully decorated and in perfect order. Central air. October occupancy.
